Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:

The fairest thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the fundamental emotion which stands at the cradle of true art and true science. He who knows it not and can no longer wonder, no longer feel amazement, is as good as dead, a snuffed-out candle. It was the experience of mystery that engendered religion.

Identify the title of the text and the writer.

Why does the author call the mystery as a fundamental emotion?

Why is mystery related to engender religion?

Write the meaning of the following: * Cradle

* snuffed – out candle * engendered * amazement
